Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received direct from the proprietors, the following valuable Medicines, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronised by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders, for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a Family Medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a Stereotype Label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the Label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said Label on them, the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's Celebrated Eye-Water:

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources. Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment:

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which in almost every case, gives instant relief, in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

From the New-York Com. Adv. April 16.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival last evening of the ship Rosalie, capt. Merry, in 38 days from London, we have received from our attentive correspondent, regular files of papers to the evening of the 5th of March; Lloyd's list of the 3d, shipping list to the 4th, and new price current to the 2d, all inclusive. From these papers we have made the following extracts.

Price of American stocks on the 2d of March.—U. S. bank shares £21 7s 6d; new six per cents, 99 a 100; three per cts. 64 a 63½.—On the 4th of March.—U. S. bank shares, £21 a 21 1o; three per cents, 63; new six per cents, 98½ a 101.

British stocks at 6 o'clock, on the 5th of March.—3 per cent reduced, 74¾ ¾ ½—3 per cent consols, 73¾—4 per cents, 93 5-8 94—5 per cents, 104¼ ¾.

French funds on the 1st of March.—Five per cents, 66f. 90c.—bank stock, 149f.

The Courier of March 5, contains Paris dates of the 2d. The chamber of peers was to meet on that day, to receive a communication from the king.

The Duke of Richelieu has appropriated the gratuity which was given to him by the legislature, to the endowment of an hospital at Bordeaux. The sum was 50,000fr. The Duke in presenting this donation observed—"I desire to see this endowment employed to the advantage of a town which has acquired so many claims to the esteem of all good Frenchmen. Besides the motives which I hold in common with all the real friends of monarchy, I have others to attach me to Bordeaux, which I am happy to recal on this occasion. The remembrance of my name and family still lives in your city, after so many events calculated to efface it. I cannot refrain from attributing much of the cordiality which I have received from the inhabitants of Bordeaux, to the respect which they retain for the memory of my grandfather, and their reception will ever remain deeply graven on my heart."

The latest accounts of the plague was received by a letter from Madrid, dated Feb. 16, which mentions that it had diminished at Tangiers; but has extended itself almost throughout the kingdom of Morocco, and makes great progress in Fez and Mequinez. The news from Tunis is almost as alarming; 300 persons are carried off daily by this dreadful scourge, which prevails in every quarter of that regency. In the peninsula, and the adjacent isles, the quarantine laws are enforced with the utmost rigor.

An article from Brussels, dated the 27th Feb. states that the persons who were about to be tried for the conspiracy which was detected last October, are accused of having formed a plot, the object of which was to assemble a body of 500 French military on half pay, and with their help to seize on his majesty the emperor of Russia, to carry him off, (but to what place is not said,) and to keep him as an hostage for Bonaparte.

The hon. Mr. Lamb, the new member for Westminster, took his seat in the house of commons on the 4th of March. The result of the election was, for

Mr. Lamb,	4165,
Mr. Hobhouse,	3861,
Major Cartwright,	38,

In the house of lords, on the 4th of March, the earl of Darnely wished to know, when it was intended to lay upon the table the convention with the United States of America. He asked the question, (he observed,) because the subject involved considerations of a very important nature. In reply, the earl of Liverpool, said, "he expected to receive, without delay, the commands of the Prince Regent, to lay the document alluded to before their lordships; and it would no doubt be on the table in the course of a few days."

In the house of commons, on the 2d of March, Sir I. Macintosh moved for the appointment of a select committee, to consider so much of the criminal law as related to the capital punishment of felonies; with instructions to report their observations thereupon to the house. On this question, a very animated debate took place, in which lord Castlereagh took an active part. His lordship acknowledged his sense of the very able and candid manner in which this important subject had been treated that evening; but objected to the motion, and moved the previous question. At 2 o'clock on the morning of the 3d the question was taken.

BANK ISSUES.

In the house of commons, on the 2d of March, Mr. Baring, in answer to a question said, that he had no hesitation in stating, that the bank had not discontinued their discounts, in consequence of the meeting of the secret committee; on the contrary, they had since extended their accounts.—The bank would not change their course of proceeding until the report of the secret committee was made; and then they would bow to the decision of parliament.

The catholic question is again to be bro't before parliament.

The estimates of the army services for the year 1819 have been printed. It appears, that the total amount is £6,582,802 12s 3d.

On the 1st of March a sermon was preached in Nile-street chapel, Glasgow, for the benefit of the Edinburgh missionary society, and among the money collected was found three elegant gold mounted brooches.

The London Monitor of Feb. 28th observes, that "Cobbett, in his last register, insinuates, that there are persons in America, who have in agitation a plan to upset the 'borough villains' and paper currency, by inundating the country with forged notes."

Governor Clinton's speech, at the opening of the legislature, is published entire in the Cork Chronicle of February 22.

From the London New Price Current March 2.

There is more business doing in the markets, and an appearance of a reviving trade

Cotton.—The sale of cotton on Friday last at the India house consisted of 1780 bags, nearly the whole was withdrawn or taken in; of 829 bales Surats, 264 were sold; viz. 86 bales good Toomel 10¼ a 10½ per lb.; 48 good Surat, 8 1-8 a 8 3-8; 130 damaged Surat, 2 1-8d a 9 1-8d.

The remainder, very bad quality, up to good Toomel, were bought in 4d a 10½; for the lower qualities there were no offers, the Brokers in consequence took them in at any price they chose; of 240 Bengals 112 were sold, 5¾d a 6¾d middling to good common quality; 9 damaged sold 4½d a 4 7-8d; 400 Madras, all were bo't in 7 3-8d a 8 7-8. Two other public sales consisting of 104 Berbice and 480 Surats, were also attempted on the same day, the whole bought in, with the exception of 10 bales low quality Surats, which sold 6½d per lb.

The purchases by private contract since our last consist of 210 Pernambuco 20¾ and 21d in bond; 70 Minas Novas 17½d; 200 Minas Gereas 15d; 30 fair Boweds 16½d; 10 prime Pengals 8d; 300 good 7d, 80 ordinary to fair quality 6d a 6¾d; and after the result of the India sale was known, 100 fair Bengals sold so low as 6¾d; 1110 Surats were taken on Saturday on speculation, 7d a 10¾d.

Tobacco.—The demand for tobacco has considerably revived; the renewed request is attributed to the great depression of the prices, which has induced the exporters and the home trade to come forward to purchase; the deliveries from the warehouse last month are stated at 1600 hhds of which only 400 are for the home consumption of the country. On Wednesday last a public sale of Tobacco, consisting of 62 hhds. stript Virginias, and 42 hhds Kentuckys, was brought forward, the whole went off freely at improving prices. Kentucky, of an inferior quality 4½ a 5¾d; since the public sale, the request by private contract has considerably revived, about 300 hhds tobacco have been taken for export, at improving prices, and the quantity of Virginias and Kentucky reported to have changed hands, or purchased by the trade, is stated to be between 600 and 700 hogheads, Hemp, Flax, and Tallow.—There has been a brisk demand for Hemp, the prices of parcels here have advanced 2l. a 3l. since our last—cargoes for arrival have not yet improved so much in proportion, but the prices are now nearly the same as for parcels in London. The request for tallow has also been more considerable, and an advance has been obtained. The holders expect a renewed inquiry for flax.—The letters to-day from St. Petersburgh state the exchange 11 7-8d a 12d.

Oils---Oils are still heavy, and declining; Rape has given way, 2l. a 3l. and the sale heavy at the reduction.

Ashes by public sale last week. 235 bbls U. S. Pearl ashes, 55s 57s 6d; 200 do do pot ashes 46s and 47s.

Rice.—The sale at the India house last week consisted of 9500 bags, the whole went off heavily at the reduction of 2s a 2s 6d per cwt; very inferior Java chiefly taken in at 14s and 14s 6d; a small proportion sold at 14s 6d and 15s.

Bengal ordinary sold and taken in at 16s 6d a 17s: good 19 and 20s.

LONDON CORN MARKET, MARCH 3.

We have had no arrivals since Monday, and what fine wheat was left over till this morning was disposed of at that days prices; but there was no demand for the inferior description. Having but little English barley at market, and several buyers appearing, fine samples sold full 1s per quarter cheaper, Wheat (English) 72 a 78s; do (Foreign) 72 a 80s; Rye 50 a 54s; Barley 48 a 59s; fine flour 65 a 70s.

March 5—We have had no arrivals from our own coast since Monday, but many from abroad, partley with wheat, which in consequence of the ports being shut against its importation for home consumption, must go to granary under the King's lock till the ports re-open. English wheat supports Monday's prices, but the sales were far from brisk. Fine barley being scarce, and in demand, sold 2s per quarter higher than on Monday, but there is little or nothing doing in any other description.

WESTMINSTER ELECTION.—BOW STREET.

Mr. Birnie and Mr. Hicks, the Magistrates were in constant attendance durring the whole of Wednesday, and continued till midnight, assisted by Mr. Stafford, the chief clerk, making arrangements and directing the officers, the conductors and the numerous parties of the patrol or parish constables, from different parts with a view to preserve the peace of the city. All their excellent precautions and arrangements were, however, insufficient, owing to the incalculable violent and mischievous mob that was collected. The magistrates frequently went among the crowd, particularly about the time of the close of the poll, and afterwards for the purpose of quelling the riotous proceedings in Henrietta street. In the execution of this duty they were assailed with great violence, and experienced some personal injuries. Mr. Birnie was struck on his breast with stones; Mr. Hicks received a blow on his head, which knocked off his hat; Mr. Stafford received a severe injury in his back. Eight of the officers have received very serious injuries from the missiles by which they were assailed from the mob.—Notwithstanding the numbers and determined attack of the latter, they did their duty in the most intrepid manner.

When the crowd in Henrietta-street was acting with the greatest violence, soon after 5 o'clock, Mr. Birnie collected and headed a very numerous party of officers, and for a time cleared the street.

When Mr. Lamb was in Covent Garden Church, where he took refuge from the hustings, Mr. Birnie advised that he should leave it, and proceed from the back door with only one private friend, across Bedford-street, Bedford court, May's buildings, &c.; by proceeding in that private manner he would probably escape the fury of the mob. The hon. gentleman, however, did not pursue this prudent course, but went out of the church with Mr. Morris, the High Baliff, and they proceeded down Bedford-street and Chandos-street. The high Baliff being a public character, was soon recognized by the crowd, as was Mr. Lamb—and "Lamb, Lamb!" &c. was vociferated by numbers, who followed them, no doubt, for the purpose of committing acts of violence upon their persons. Fortunately Mr. Bernie was near the spot, and having learned the cause of the shouting of "Lamb," with great promptitude ordered a numerous party of constables to follow Mr. Lamb; they did so, and overtook and surrounded that gentleman, whom they conducted to his father's house, in Whitehall, where he arrived without experiencing any personal injury.

In the course of the evening Mr. Birnie and Mr. Hicks, the magistrates, received information at the office of different parties of rioters, among them were some at Mr. Wishart's house, in Coventry-street, whose windows were broken, and another at the house of Lord Castlereagh, in St. James's square, whose windows were also broken. Another mob at the Coffee-house in Newcastle-street. Strand, where one of Mr. Lamb's Committees assembled, broke a great portion of the windows and the frames. This mob proceeded to the house of Ruthen, the officer belonging to this office, in Holles-street, Clare market, and demolished the windows of his house. To all these places parties of officers were despatched with all possible speed.

Sixteen others were brought up by different constables, and were positively sworn to, as having been actively engaged in various outrages; some of having pelted Lord Sefton and his friends, some of breaking windows, and others of inflicting violent blows with bludgeons. Several of the prisoners were ordered to find bail; some were discharged on their promise to appear when called upon, and five were committed. Several were committed for picking pockets.

ATTEMPT AT MURDER.

Amongst the fellows brought up to Bow-street office on Wednesday, on charge of rioting, was one named James Mitchell, who was committed on suspicion of his being the wretch who made the desperate attempt to murder Miss Rowles at Burnham, as stated in our paper of yesterday. He was charged by William Dickenson, a constable, with being very active among the crowd in Henrietta-street; he was armed with a bludgeon, with which he struck Dickenson and several persons. He gave a very strange account of himself, saying he had only lately arrived from Hampshire. His name being the same as that of the wretch who attempted the above horrid transaction, the worthy Magistrate examined him very strictly.

QUEEN-SQUARE.—ATTACK ON MR. LAMB'S HOUSE.

Yesterday Thomas Hole and Wm. May, young men about the ages of 20 were bro't to this office, and examined before W. Fielding, charged with being actively concerned with a mob who attacked the house of the Hon. Mr. Lamb, M. P. at Whitehall, on Wednesday night. The mob consisted of at least 5000 persons, men and boys, and seemed to have provided themselves with stones and bricks, for the occasion; however, as soon as the turbulence of the multitude began to manifest itself in Covent-Garden, at an early hour of the day, an attack on Mr. Lamb's house was naturally anticipated, and proper measures taken to prevent the outrage.

They were committed.

Court of King's Bench, March 4.

KENNY V. CROPPER.

This action was brought by the plaintiff, who is the widow of a Captain Renny, for the recovery of a sum of £2000, under the following circumstances:—

Capt. Renny was the owner of a merchant ship, which he chartered to the defendants, who are British merchants, for a voyage from Liverpool to New-York and back. The vessel carried a cargo outwards and was bound to bring home another of American produce, if the consignees of the plaintiff should chuse to send one, but the plaintiff was not bound to seek a cargo on his own account, as the entire voyage was settled at a stipulated sum. However, the consignees, Messrs. Jenkins & Co. at New-York, did ship homeward a quantity of wool which was stated to the Captain to have been brought to New-York by a British vessel from some other part of the U. States. But on his arrival home, it was discovered by the Custom House officers, who came on board off Liverpool, that it was Smyrna wool; and that all vessels coming from that country, or having on board the produce thereof, were at that time subjected to quarantine at Milford Haven, and where her cargo was taken out and re-shipped, and her detention was 104 days on this duty, under a charge for demurage of 15s per day, the whole charges for which amounted to £2000 beside the charge for the direct voyage out and home: The employers refused to pay this sum, and the plaintiff brought her action.

By the British Navigation Law, no British vessel bound to a foreign country is permitted to bring home any cargo to England, except of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country from which such goods are shipped.—The question, therefore, in this case, as stated by the learned judge in his charge to the jury, was, whether the captain of the ship was informed, or knew that this wool was of Smyrna and not America, or whether he was deceived by the shippers, who were the correspondents of the defendants, and by whose orders he was instructed to act. If he did know or was informed of the circumstance, his act was voluntary, and he must be liable to the consequence of his own default on the charges incurred; but if he did not know, and was deceived by the shippers, then the verdict must be for him.

The Jury, after a short consultation, found for the plaintiff damages 2000*l* with costs.

Grenock, Scotland, Jan. 26.

MELANCHOLY SHIPWRECK.

About 6 o'clock, on Friday morning, the fine ship Trelawney, 450 tons burden, of Glasscow, bound to Jamaica, and commanded by David Reid, one of our most respectable and experienced shipmasters in the West-India trade, went on shore on the Ayreshire coast, between Stevenson Burn and Irvin Bar. There was no communication between the vessel and the land in the morning; and at ten o'clock it came on to blow very hard, with a heavy swell, when fore of the crew came on shore in the jolly boat, with a line, but it unfortunately slipped from the vessel. A cask, however, with a line, reached the shore, and four active, adventurous seamen, of Saltcoats, (three of them shipmasters) immediately pushed off in a boat and succeeded in reaching the vessel.

Having taken on board the captain and ten of the crew, which was as many as the boat could carry; they were returning, when the boat upset, and all on board perished, within 200 yards of the shore, in the sight of a great number of people, who could give them no assistance. The body of captain Reid, and that of one of the ships' boys, named Clark, came on shore soon after, but all attempts to restore animation failed. The remainder of the crew, consisting of nine, with a passenger, were seen clinging to the masts and rigging all day, the sea breaking over the vessle, but no attempt could be made to save them; and four of them dropped off during the night. Next morning, the weather having moderated, the other five seamen, with the passenger, were carried on shore, and are fast recovering, from the humane attention the have met with.

Those six, with the four who got ashore in the jolly boat the preceding forenoon, are all that are saved; nineteen having been drowned, including the four men who lost their lives in the generous attempts to save the live of others. The following are the names of those four men three of whom have left families:—Captain Robert Wood, jun. Captain Samuel Ferrow, Captain Hughan, and John Hogart, seaman.

The following are the names of the people saved:—James Wallace, mate; D. M'Dougall, carpenter; Adam Duncan, second mate; Alexander Henderson, boatswain; John Black steward; William Pearson, George Fairlie, John Connolly, and John Douglass, seamen; and a passenger

The vessel is already sanded as far as the gunwale, and partly broken up. The cargo, fortunately was not very valuable; consisting mostly of herrings with some plantation stores, a considerable part of which will probably be saved.

ALEXANDRIA:
TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1819.

Winchester April 10.

The following was the result of the Election on Monday last, for a member of Congress, Senate, and Members of the House of Delegates.

CONGRESS.
Gen. J. Smith	350
Capt. Jared Williams	306
SENATE.
Gen. H. St. G. Tucker (no opposition.)	630
DELEGATES.
A. Magill, Esq.	618
Col. Joseph Sexton	384
John W. Hage Esq.	304

Shenandoah county forms a part of this Congressional District:—The loss of Gen. Smith's election seems to be pretty generally admitted.

Extract of a letter to the editors of the National Intelligencer, dated in the Alabama Territory, March 26.

"You will conclude, no doubt, that we are highly gratified by the news of the cession of Florida. We think nothing of the land, however, for it is literally good for nothing. But the water is important. Pensacola Bey is a fine harbar for vessels. Pensacola will be a great depot for the merchandize destined to supply the North Western country. People are already flocking to the new acquisition; because it is new. I know no other inducement—for the land (excepting small spots) is worthless, and does not belong to the Spaniards, but to the Indians, whose title has not been extinguished further than 8 or 9 miles from Pensacola."

New-York, April 14.

To the Editor of the Mercantile Advertiser.

As the launching of the U. S. Steam-Boat at Pittsburg has been announced, and as it may not be generally known what are the objects in view, I send you some extracts of a letter from a young officer going upon the expedition. She is called the Western Engineer, and will start from Pittsburg about the first of May. It is intended that she shall navigate the western waters as far as the Yellow Stone River, which will require upwards of two years. It is not expected that they will do more than explore the waters of the Missouri and its tributary streams the first season, as the movements will be gradual, in order to obtain a thorough knowledge of that section of the country, with a history of the inhabitants, soil, minerals and curiosities. The expedition is under the direction of Major Stephen H. Long, of New Hampshire, of the topographical engineers, attended by Mr. James D. Graham, of Virginia, and Mr. William H. Swift of Mass. from the U. S. Military Academy; Major Thomas Biddle of Philadelphia, of the artillery, and the following gentlemen:—

Dr. Jessup, of Philadelphia, Mineralegist.

Dr. Say. of do. Botanist and Geologist.

Dr. Baldwin, of Wilmington, Del. Zoologist and Physician.

Mr. Peale of Philad. Landscape Painter and Ornithologist.

Mr. Seymour, do. do. do.

Major O. Fallow, Indian Agent.

She is well armed, but carries an elegant flag, painted by Mr. Peale, representing a white man and an Indian shaking hands, the Calumet of Peace, and a sword. The boat is 75 feet long, 13 feet beam, draws 19 inches of water, with her engine, which together with all the machinery, is placed below deck, entirely out of sight. The steam passes off through the mouth of the figure head, (a large serpent.) The wheels are placed in the stern, to avoid the snags and sawyers which are so common in those waters. She has a mast to ship or not as may be necessary. The expedition will depart with the best wishes of the scientific part of our country.

We are requested to state that John Linton, esq. of Prince William, is a candidate for the senate, to represent the counties of Fairfax and Prince William, in the place of John Love, esq. who has vacated his seat

We are authorised to announce William H. Fitzhugh Esq. of Fairfax, as a Candidate for the next Senatorial district, composed at the next election, of the counties of Loudoun, Fairfax, and Fauquir.

We are authorised to state that Cuthbert Powel, Esq. declines being considered a Candidate for the Senate for the next election.

Shad and Herrings

CAN be had, in any reasonable quantities, and at moderate prices, at the White-House Fishery

of the Belvoir estate, on the river Potomac; and persons from the country, as well as water customers, are invited to that shore, where they may expect the best treatment, and every facility, in getting such supplies as they need, which that well known fishery, and the utmost attention of the subscriber, can afford. Having been long experienced in that business on the Delaware river, and having taken the fishery for several seasons, he has caused a complete outfit to be made, not only for taking Shad, as heretofore, but Herrings, of which it is well known that almost any number may be caught at that shore, when the gluts are in the river. A very complete and commodious fish-house, on the spot, may be made use of by persons disposed to put up fish extensively, and who bring barrels and salt for the purpose. A number of barrels, and a quantity of salt, may probably also be had at the fish-house.——As the

Sandy-Point Herring Fishery,

at the mouth of Pohick Creek, on the same estate, is carried on this season by Mr. John Henderson, there will be the greater certainty that customers will not be disappointed in herrings, the two fisheries being near together: but country customers are cautioned not to come too early for herrings; as, of late years, they have several times done, and by returning home have missed of getting their supply, which afterwards was plentiful.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirious of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or
